Biography

While working as a docent at Miss Anthony's Rochester, NY home, Ms. Gehret wrote Susan B. Anthony and Justice For All, which is available in 100 classrooms in the Rochester City Schools. Affiliated with the Susan B. Anthony Birthplace Museum in Adams, MA, she has presented Miss Anthony in costume in dozens of libraries and schools, led Girl Scout workshops at the Susan B. Anthony House, and given many adult presentations on the famous reformer for organizations such as The Women's History Museum (Seneca Falls), the Susan B. Anthony House in Rochester, the American Association of University Women, and Women In Communications.

To celebrate the 75th anniversary of the women's rights amendment in 1995, she curated an exhibit on the Anthony family at the Rochester Museum & Science Center.

Living History Presentation

Trail of Light

Dear Susan, We bless the day that brought you to us; for your kindly words about women have lifted the fog. Now the veiling mists are drifting away, leaving us a clearer view of our duty to humanity and to ourselves. You have left behind a trail of light. California, 1895

Presentations

"The members of the Perinton Historical Society and our guests were very pleased with Jeanne Gehret's program, and we look forward to inviting her back in the future." - Vicki Profitt, Vice-President

FAILURE IS IMPOSSIBLE

In her costumed presentation "Failure is Impossible," Jeanne Gehret takes on the persona and costume of Susan B. Anthony eight years after Anthony voted.

She gives background on the social conditions prompting Anthony's fight for women's rights, but also stresses Anthony's strong activism for abolition and temperance. A backdrop of archival 19th century photos helps set the scene. After the formal talk, she will answer questions. 40 minutes

Nineteenth-century American history and language arts come alive for those who experience a visit based on Jeanne Gehret's biography of Susan B. Anthony. Ms. Gehret welcomes the opportunity to tailor presentations to your group and/or curriculum.

For Women's History Month (March), choose an inspirational speech about Ms. Anthony, her work, or her travels. For language arts, Ms. Gehret will work with your students on writing biographies of selected individuals.

BEDBUGS AND MOBS

In her assembly presentation "Bedbugs and Mobs," Gehret speaks as author and admirer of SBA. Her PowerPoint presentation includes photos and illustrations from the 19th century depicting Anthony's birthplace and adult home, Quaker upbringing, and social conditions prompting her reform work. Dramatic accounts of Anthony's intrepid travels focus on the winter of mobs (for antislavery) and the summer of bedbugs (for women's rights). 30 minutes
